No.

5. This action is instituted pursuant to the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (“ADEA”) and applicable federal and state law.

6. Jurisdiction is conferred by 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343.

7. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1) and (b)(2), venue is properly laid in this district because Defendant conducts business in this district, and because a substantial part of the acts and/or omissions giving rise to the claims set forth herein occurred in this judicial district. Mr. Rodriguez was working for Defendant in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania at the time of the illegal actions by Defendant as set forth herein.

II. Operative Facts.

8. Mr. Rodriguez is a 51-year-old individual with a date of birth of October 8, 1972, and is therefore a member of a protected class.

9. On or about September 8, 2021, Defendant hired Ms. Jose Rodriguez as a temporary employee and he became a full-time employee for Defendant on December 27, 2021, beginning in January of 2022. During his employment, Mr. Rodriguez performed all duties asked of him without any complaints or issues. Mr. Rodriguez's last job prior to his termination was that of an Order Ticker.

10. On or around February 15, 2022, continuing through the remainder of his employment, Mr. Rodriguez's Supervisor, Mike Jablecki, discriminated against Mr. Rodriguez on the basis of his age. Mr. Jablecki made negative age-based and age-related discriminatory comments to Mr. Rodriguez, calling him an old guy, saying that he was too slow to work and that he was too old to perform his job duties.

11. Whenever Mike Jablecki was around Mr. Rodriguez, he would make these negative age-based and age-related discriminatory comments to Mr. Rodriguez. This upset Mr. Rodriguez to the point where he was crying and it really negatively impacted his self-esteem, confidence and mental well-being.

12. Mr. Rodriguez complained to Human Resource personnel John Curtain that Mr. Jablecki was making such negative age-based and age-related discriminatory comments to him.

13. Mr. Curtain times took no action to investigate Mr. Rodriguez's complaints because he told Mr. Rodriguez that he was too busy.

14. Mr. Rodriguez could not take the age discrimination anymore and he was constructively discharged on September 8, 2022.

15. Mr. Rodriguez received unemployment benefit after his constructive discharge.

16. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff sustained great economic loss, future lost earning capacity, lost opportunity, loss of future wages and earnings, as well as emotional distress, humiliation, pain and suffering, personal injury damages and other damages as set forth below.

CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT I ADEA CLAIM - DISCRIMINATION (29 U.S.C. § 621 et seq.)

17. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if set forth more fully at length herein.

18. At set forth above, Plaintiff's status as an individual over the age of forty (40) places him in a protected class.

19. Plaintiff's supervisor Mike Jablecki, made negative age-related comments to him during his employment.

20. As Plaintiff's supervisor, Defendant is vicariously liable for Mike Jablecki's harassment and discriminatory comments.

21. Defendant took adverse action against Plaintiff by forcing him to terminate his employment.

22. Plaintiff's membership in a protected class, age, was the sole factor in Defendant's decision to discriminate against, harass and force him to terminate his employment.

23. Upon information and belief, subsequent to his termination, Plaintiff's job duties were subsumed by a younger employee.

24. As set forth above, Defendant pressured the Plaintiff into resigning his employment through continual harassment is an adverse employment action on account of his age is an action prohibited by the Age Discrimination in Employment Act. 29 U.S.C.A. § 623(a)(1).

25. As a proximate result of Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff sustained significant damages, including but not limited to: great economic loss, future lost earning capacity, lost opportunity, loss of future wages, loss of front pay, loss of back pay, as well as emotional distress, mental anguish, humiliation, pain and suffering, consequential damages and Plaintiff also sustained work loss, loss of opportunity, and a permanent diminution of earning power and capacity and a claim is made therefore.

26. As a result of the conduct of Defendant's owners/management, Plaintiff hereby demands punitive damages.

27. Pursuant to the ADEA, 29 U.S.C. § 621, et seq., Plaintiff demands attorneys' fees and court costs.

COUNT II
ADEA - RETALIATION
42 U.S.C.A. § 2000e-2(a)

28. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if set forth more fully at length herein.

29. Plaintiff's supervisor Mike Jablecki, made negative age-related comments to him during his employment.

30. As Plaintiff's supervisor, Defendant is vicariously liable for Mike Jablecki's harassment and discriminatory comments.

31. Defendant took adverse action against Plaintiff by failing to investigate his complaints of age discrimination and thereby forcing him to terminate his employment.

32. As set forth above, Defendant pressured the Plaintiff into terminating his employment through failing to investigate his complaints of age discrimination and allowing him to suffer continual harassment which is an adverse employment action and an action prohibited by the Age Discrimination in Employment Act. 29 U.S.C.A. § 623(a)(1).

33. As a proximate result of Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff sustained significant damages, including but not limited to: great economic loss, future lost earning capacity, lost opportunity, loss of future wages, loss of front pay, loss of back pay, as well as emotional distress, mental anguish, humiliation, pain and suffering, consequential damages and Plaintiff has also sustained work loss, loss of opportunity, and a permanent diminution of earning power and capacity and a claim is made therefore.

34. As a result of the conduct of Defendant's management, Plaintiff demands punitive damages.

35. Pursuant to the ADEA, Plaintiff demands attorneys' fees and court costs.

COUNT III CONSTRUCTIVE DISCHARGE

36. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if set forth more fully at length herein.

37. Defendant Constructively Discharged Plaintiff from his employment when it failed to prevent, and therefore condoned, severe and pervasive and outrageous age-related harassment and a related hostile work environment.

38. Plaintiff's supervisor Mike Jablecki, made negative age-related comments to him during his employment.

39. Defendant knew or should have known of the harassment/hostile work environment and failed to prevent or cease the harassment/hostile work environment endured by Plaintiff.

40. The harassment/hostile work environment led to the constructive discharge of Plaintiff which is a materially adverse employment action.

41. As such, Defendants' actions are unlawful employment practices under the ADEA.

42. Plaintiff was subjected to harassment/hostile work environment by Defendants based on his age.

43. The discriminatory conduct was not welcomed by Plaintiff.

44. The conduct was so severe or pervasive that a reasonable person in Plaintiff's position would find the work environment to be hostile or abusive.

45. The working conditions, as sanctioned by Defendant became so intolerable to Plaintiff that he was forced to resign his employment with Defendants.

46. Plaintiff did, in fact, resign his employment.

47. Plaintiff's forced resignation was a constructive discharge, and therefore, a materially adverse employment action.

48. As a proximate result of Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff sustained significant damages, including but not limited to: great economic loss, future lost earning capacity, lost opportunity, loss of future wages, loss of front pay, loss of back pay, loss of tips as well as emotional distress, mental anguish, humiliation, pain and suffering, consequential damages and Plaintiff has also sustained work loss, loss of opportunity, and a permanent diminution of his earning power and capacity and a claim is made therefore.

49. Pursuant to the ADEA, Plaintiff demands attorney's fees and court costs.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Jose Rodriguez, demands judgment in his favor and against Defendant, Yellow Supply, in an amount in excess of $150,000.00 together with:

- A. Compensatory damages, including but not limited to: back pay, front pay, past lost wages, future lost wages. Lost pay increases, lost pay incentives, lost opportunity, lost benefits, lost future earning capacity, injury to reputation, mental and emotional distress, pain and suffering
- B. Punitive damages;
- C. Attorneys' fees and costs of suit;
- D. Interest, delay damages; and,
- E. Any other further relief this Court deems just proper and equitable.
